

APS CURRICULUM – GEOGRAPHY	A Wonder of Appleby: River Eden in Appleby		YEAR B, SUMMER TERM
	Knowledge, Skills and understanding breakdown
YEAR 1 and 2	Year 1
National Curriculum Links	Geographical Enquiry	Physical Geography	Human Geography	Geographical Knowledge
Ge1/1.3b: Use Basic geographical vocabulary to refer to key physical features and human features Ge1/1.4a: Use maps and globes to identify the UK and its counties, continents and oceans Ge1/1.4b: Use simple compass directions (N,S,E,W) and locational/directional language to describe location of features	• Can they say what they like about their locality? • Can they sort things they like and don't like? • Can they answer some questions using different resources, such as books, the internet and atlases? • Can they think of a few good questions to ask about a locality?	• Can they describe the river using words and pictures? • Can they name key features associated with the river in the town? • Can they describe how to get to the river from School?	• Can they talk about ways they can help look after the river? • Can they explain how people of Appleby use the river?	• Can they name the city where the river Eden reaches the sea? • Can the children name and label key features of the river? • Can they identify which way the river flows?
Pupils should be taught: • How the community uses the river in Appleby. • The geographical similarities and differences through studying the human and physical geography of a small area of the UK. • The basic geographical vocabulary such as ocean, river, soil, vegetation, season, city, town, village, factory, farm, port, river and canal. • To use locational and directional language. • To use aerial photographs, plans and maps. • To use basic fieldwork and observational skills to study the	Year 1 (More Challenging)
	Can they make plausible suggestions about how and why the river levels change?	Can they explain where the water in the river Eden comes from and goes to?	Can they name some jobs that might involve looking after or working in the river?	Can they name another settlement that the river Eden travels through?

geography of the river Eden in Appleby. How the river can affect the everyday life of people in Appleby
CORE Learning / Sticky Knowledge	Year 2
	Geographical Enquiry	Physical Geography	Human Geography	Geographical Knowledge
- Where the source and the mouth of the river is. - Which direction the river flows. - Know the crossing points of the river in Appleby. - Create questions about the river. Is it Polluted? Where is it deepest? What kind of animals live in the river in Appleby?	- Can they label a diagram or photograph using some geographical words? - Can they find out about a locality by using different sources of evidence? - Can they find out about a locality by asking some good questions to someone else? - Can they say what they like and don't like about their locality?	- Can they describe some physical features of the river? - Can they explain what makes a river special? - Can they describe the key features of a the river, using words like, bank, flow, depth, speed, ford, river bed, upstream, downstream, erosion...	- Can they describe human features of the river? - Do they think that people ever spoil the area? How? - Do they think that people try to make the area better? How?	- Can you find where they the river Eden is on a map of the UK? - Can they name where the source and the Mouth of the Eden is?
Local Geography Links
- Visit the River Eden - Map their journey along the river.	Year 2 (More Challenging)
	Can they make plausible predictions about what happens to the river in high rainfall?	Can they explain how the water gets into the river?	Can they explain why the Town of Appleby was built by the river?	Can they identify where the river Eden is on an Arial map?